Church Services

Bishop Stephen's Missionary Walk

On 11th September Bishop Stephen concludes his missionary walking journey around the diocese in his home parish. We will have a "going home school event" on the site of the original mission church set up 100 years ago and inaugurated by the first Bishop of Chelmsford on the first Sunday of Lent 1919, on the corner of London Road and Lime Avenue. The event will run from 1500 - 1600 and will cover the going home period for our 4 schools in the parish.

It will be very informal including drinks, cakes and goodies for children and parents on their way home. Hopefully a fitting thing for the Bishop as an old boy of the parish and school and governor to conclude his missionary journey and for us to conclude our summer activities.

Where Is It?

Last month's picture was of course the statue of St Margaret.

Where is this in our church?

In August we are particularly collecting cereals and sauces

September:

Microwavable Rice; Pot Noodles; Tinned Ravioli; Tinned Macaroni Cheese; Spaghetti Bolognaise

October: Biscuits; Big chunky soups; Pasta and sauces; Jellies

All Donations should be left in a box in the porch for delivery by Peter Maddox. Any other donations will be gratefully received.

Editorial Note. Changes afoot!

The next edition of Bulletin will be the November edition at the end of October. Thereafter it will become a Quarterly Bulletin being produced in February, May, August and November. Any interesting articles or poems are welcome and any 'special' celebration to be shared with our church Family.

Centenary Weekend

From a Bishop, a mass of priests, a hog roast and fireworks on Saturday evening (thanks to Jeremy Shallis)

to a Reunion Service, renewed friendships and cake on Sunday afternoon, (thanks to Clare Fraser) and more....

The whole Centenary weekend was a resounding success.

Thank you Fr David for your vision and for masterminding it (and for making wine)

There will be reports and more photographs in the next edition of Bulletin.

Keep an eye on the web site for a slide show of the weekend from which it will be possible to print individual photographs.
